Background

Kayla Cache is a rising talent in New Zealand’s entertainment industry, known for her work in acting, directing, dance, and choreography. She has featured in TV, music videos, short films, theatre, and journalism, including SBS’s Dear My Mother and music videos for Ruby Coley and 0800.

Kayla has starred in over a dozen short films, directed works like Camp Bloody Mary and The Y.L.A. Virus, and reported for Kea Kids News. Her film The Ivy Forest—which she directed and starred in—was selected for the 2025 Busan International Kids and Youth Film Festival. She also won Best Youth Actor and Best Youth Film at the 2024 Misty Flicks Film Festival.
