Background

Cameron Barnes is a New Zealand-born actor whose screen presence is as grounded as his roots. After earning a Bachelor's degree in Environmental Science, he spent several years travelling the world as a passionate snowboarder, before a chance opportunity on the sets of The Vertical Limit and The Lord of the Rings trilogy in Queenstown sparked a deep interest in film.

Relocating to Sydney in 2000, Cameron officially turned his focus to acting in 2012 and has since built an impressive portfolio spanning stage, television, and feature films. Known for his versatility and compelling performances, he is also a sought-after presence in the commercial world.

Cameron has honed his craft with formal training in both Australia and the United States, steadily earning a reputation as a committed and dynamic performer.
