Background

Chloe Yule began her performance journey in musical theatre, training from age 5 and later focusing on acting through programs at TAPAC

After completing a Bachelor of Communications majoring in Screen Production, she explored the industry from behind the camera — but ultimately found herself drawn back to acting.

Over the past year, Chloe has worked on projects including Heart Eyes, Crack Head, and East of Eden, continuing to grow her experience both on and off screen.

We are thrilled to be presenting Chloe at TMH.
