Background

Arika is a British actor of Pashtun and English descent from Bradford, West Yorkshire. A former international rugby and track competitor, a Judo Black Belt and stunt performer, he brings a powerful physical presence and precision to every role.

He trained at drama schools across England and the U.S., most recently at the Stella Adler Academy in Hollywood. Known for his compelling portrayals of iconic villains, he has appeared in numerous UK and NZ television productions.

In 2022, he won Best Actor at the Europe Film Festival.

We are thrilled to be representing Arika at TMH.
