Background

Brady Peeti, a pioneering, award-winning actress.

She has shattered stereotypes as the first trans actress to take a leading role in the hit musical; Jekyll & Hyde.

Graduating from the National Academy of Singing and Dramatic Art, Brady's remarkable talent shines on both stage and screen. Her theatre credits include unforgettable performances in Fever: Return of the Ula, Black Ties, Astroman, The Wizard of Otāhuhu, and Larger Than Life. Notably, she wowed audiences as Lucy Harris in the musical Jekyll & Hyde, and most recently the wonderful show Kōpū at Te Pou, which was a celebration of wāhinetanga, a hugely successful show, Kōpū pays tribute to the wāhine whose voices should matter the most on the marae; our nannies, mothers, and aunties.

Brady's versatility is evident in her portrayal of the man-eating plant Audrey II in Little Shop of Horrors at Christchurch's Court Theatre, a role usually assigned to a puppeteer.

Beyond the stage, Brady has left her mark on television with appearances in the Māori bilingual web series Ahikāroa and her incredible role in Mika's, GURL and most notably the emotional and necessary conversations of TransGenerations.
