Background

Daniel Wilkinson is a versatile actor known for his intense commitment to his craft. Born in New Zealand, he has built a career taking on complex and compelling roles in film and television. He made a lasting impression as the lead in the horror film Pitchfork, where his performance was praised for bringing unexpected depth and nuance to the antagonist.

Beyond Pitchfork, Daniel has appeared in projects like Basic and Nepotism and continues to expand his filmography with exciting new roles. With upcoming films Winnie vs Mickey set for release in 2025, he's proving to be a talent to watch. Passionate about storytelling and character work, Daniel splits his time between the U.S. and New Zealand, always seeking roles that push creative boundaries.
